POLICE INVESTIGATE DEATH IN ROSEVILLE / FLEETRIDGE

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are investigating the death of a man discovered in a Point Loma parking lot this morning.

At approximately 8:30 a.m., a citizen walking through a parking lot, located in the 4900 block of North Harbor Drive, noticed a body in some bushes. Due to the unusual location, and not knowing the status of the man, the citizen called the police department to check his welfare. A San Diego Fire Department engine company arrived first and confirmed that the person was deceased.

While conducting the preliminary investigation, patrol officers and medics noticed suspicious trauma to the man's body. The Homicide Unit was called to investigate the death.

The cause and manner of his death are not known at this time. An autopsy will be performed by the Medical Examiner's office.

The decedent is a white male and appears to be 40 to 50 years old. He has not been identified.

Anyone with information related to this incident is encouraged to call the Homicide Unit at 619 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at 888 580-8477.
